Approvals may incur a site survey fee.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

In no event will Encore be liable to Client or any other party for any special, exemplary, incidental or consequential damages (including, but not limited to lost profits, earnings, use or data), whether in contract, tort or otherwise.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

The Parties' performance under this Agreement is subject to war, threat of war, terrorism, disasters, acts of God, government regulations, strikes, labor disputes, civil disorder, curtailment of transportation facilities, or any other emergency of comparable nature beyond the Parties' control, making it impossible, illegal or materially impractical to perform its obligation under this Agreement and which requires the event to be postponed or cancelled ("Force Majeure Event"). Both Parties agree that, if possible, the event that is the subject of this Agreement will be rescheduled at the first available opportunity suitable for each Party. In the event the Parties are unable to reschedule due to a Force Majeure Event, this Agreement may be terminated upon reasonable written notice without a cancellation charge as set forth herein, except that Encore shall be entitled to reimbursement of all actual costs incurred and actual services rendered pursuant to this Agreement.

12. SEVERABILITY

In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be unenforceable or inoperative as a matter of law, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect and be construed as though such unenforceable or inoperative provisions had never been a part of this Agreement.

13. SURVIVAL

All provisions of this Agreement related to indemnification, disclaimers and limitations on liability and all other obligations of the Parties that arise in connection with Encore's provisions of Equipment and/or Services survive the termination of this Agreement.
